transnational reproduction traces the relationships among western aspiring parents indian surrogates and egg donors from around the world in the early 2010s india was one of the top providers of surrogacy services in the world drawing on interviews with commissioning parents surrogates and egg donors as well as doctors and family members daisy deomampo argues that while the surrogacy industry in india offers a clear example of stratified reproduction the ways in which political economic and social forces structure the conditions under which women carry out physical and social reproductive labor it also complicates that concept as the various actors in this reproductive work struggle to understand their relationships to one another the book shows how these actors make sense of their connections illuminating the ways in which kinship ties are challenged transformed or reinforced in the context of transnational gestational surrogacy the volume revisits the concept of stratified reproduction in ways that offer a more robust and nuanced understanding of race and power as ideas about kinship intersect with structures of inequality it demonstrates that while reproductive actors share a common quest for conception they make sense of family in the context of globalized assisted reproductive technologies in very different ways in doing so deomampo uncovers the specific racial reproductive imaginaries that underpin the unequal relations at the heart of transnational surrogacy de legendarische en mysterieuze tan malaka verscheen na twintig jaar verbanning en ondergrondse actie kort na de proclamatie van de indonesische onafhankelijkheid op 17 augustus 1945 weer in de openbaarheid hij bood een radicaal alternatief voor de gematigde koers van soekarno en hatta het leidersduo van de republiek indonesia maar hij dolf het onderspit en werd in maart 1946 gevangengezet pas in september 1948 kwam hij vrij hij richtte toen de partai murba op die de plaats wilde innemen van de in de madoen opstand neergeslagen communistische partij na de nederlandse militaire actie van december 1948 volgde hij het guerrillaverzet in februari 1949 werd hij doodgeschoten bij een interne afrekening tan malaka s levensloop is vaak in mysterie gehuld in dit boek wordt dit grotendeels ontrafeld zoals ook waar en door wie hij om het leven werd gebracht zijn prominente rol tijdens de indonesische revolutie actief en als symbool maken het noodzakelijk uitgebreid de politieke verwickelingen in de republiek en in de verdeelde linkse beweging te beschrijven in vele opzichten worden over doorslaggevende gebeurtenissen in de revolutie nieuwe gegevens en visies verschaft in een uitgebreide epiloog worden de lotgevallen gevolgd van tan malaka s geesteskind partai murba en van tan malaka s naleven dat zich pas sinds kort aan de kenschets verguisd en vergeten begint te onttrekken since birth we have been ensnared in a gendered world gender is so deeply ingrained in various aspects of our lives such as social political legal and economic institutions and the related actions ideas and aspirations that it appears natural as a result of gender defined roles and experiences gendered hierarchies get established it is crucial to re examine the fundamental issues of gender equality and development from a new perspective in doing so this volume puts aside what we are accustomed to and challenges some of our most fundamental assumptions and understandings it analyses gender not as a given but as a feat not just as the cause but also as a result and not only as a person but also as a society in order to expose and critique the processes that create or reassert the inevitability and naturalness of a gendered reality the book sketches the basic understanding of gender its construction perception of gender the process of identity formation and socialization and the kind of influence gender has on society this volume is a comprehensive resource that gives a new perspective on gender as a key organizing factor within society it unpacks the social construction of knowledge categories of difference and structures of power and inequality from the viewpoints of researchers and academicians researchers teachers students and other groups interested in gender studies sociology law history and languages will find the book refreshingly handy in their inquiry the book is a collection of narratives empirical evidence and opinion papers along with systematic literature reviews around gender equality and development indonesia s foreign policy has been the topic of all too few scholarly works this condition is however rapidly changing and we can now look forward during the next few years to the publication of several important studies among the highly qualified authors presently engaged in completing books on various aspects of this subject are indonesia s former vice president mohammad hatta a former foreign minister and deputy prime minister mohamad roem and a former foreign minister anak agung gde agung currently major studies are also well under way by ambassador howard jones professor frederick bunnell and professor david mozingo none of these ongoing studies however focuses on the very recent period described by mr franklin weinstein in the interim report which the indonesia project is here publishing his report is concerned with one of the most significant but at the same time one of the most confusing watersheds of indonesian foreign policy this is the process whereby indonesia's confrontation against malaysia was brought to an end a development of this significance we feel merits careful study now even though the relevant data are as yet only partially available it is our belief that a sufficient amount of pertinent material is on hand at this point to warrant the avowedly provisional account which mr weinstein has undertaken with the encouragement of the cornell modern indonesia project he himself wishes to emphasize the tentative character of his report and would appreciate it if those who read it indonesians in particular would be kind enough to send him their criticisms and suggestions for the study's improvement it is his hope and ours that a substantial amount of such commentary will be sent him so that following his current sojourn and research in indonesia he will be in a position to publish a study of recent indonesian foreign policy which will be more comprehensive and definitive in character george mc t kahin october 1968
